Seekhaven's "Puttin' on the Ritz"

February 10th, Seekhaven will be hosting the classiest event of 2018 – Puttin' on the Ritz – at the Grand Center! Attendees are invited to sport their "glad rags" (finest attire) and join fellow Moabites for an evening full of first-class dining and dancing in addition to a silent auction chock-full of art, activities and services.

Tim Buckingham, a local chef, will be preparing distinguished Italian cuisine for the Ritz' 2018 menu while Jason Parriott, owner of Parriott's Hair Salon, will be the DJ for the evening. Throughout the night, guests will be able to bid on a plethora of silent auction items.

Puttin' on the Ritz is Seekhaven's leading and biggest event of the year. 100% of proceeds from the event go to support Seekhaven Family Crisis and Resource Center, every penny! This means, 10% of the budget for the non-profit comes from the Ritz.

them as they make their way through the often stressful and overwhelming legal system. Free counseling is an option for survivors of abuse, and our advocates work to find many resources for clients such as stable incomes, food, housing, medical care and education. Seekhaven also provides a twenty-four hour crisis hotline! These programs help to ensure that individuals and families go on to build healthy, happy lives and relationships after enduring trauma.

"Puttin' on the Ritz"

Seekhaven's policy is to meet survivors where they are at, working with them at their own pace and with respect to their wishes and boundaries.

In other Seekhaven news, there is a wonderful staff at our Crisis and Resource Center including some new members! Maddy Fisk, previous Director of Programs is now the Executive Director. Abi Taylor is the current Director of Programs, Cheryl Zwahlen: Shelter Manager, Luke Wojciechowski: Director of Client Services, Megan List: Volunteer Coordinator, Kristen Marsh: Victim's Advocate, Tess Barger: Victim's Advocate and Elaina Budris: VISTA. Our Shelter staff includes Elana Davidson, Ian Jewell, Phil Bostic and Sierra Deegan. Come met our staff! We will have a staff spotlight installation in addition to art installations portraying statistics of domestic violence in an engaging and thought-provoking way.

With the support of our staff and board, Seekhaven is heading into 2018 eager to expand services, continue to serve our community and work with Moab to harbor a safe, healthy and strengthened community! See you at the Ritz!

Seekhaven provides safety and refuge for children and women who have endured domestic violence or sexual assault with our eight bed shelter. In addition to our shelter services, Seekhaven provides many outreach services to victims and our community. These include outreach, education, and development of the non-profit's community involvement. Specifics of these services include assisting clients with acquiring protective orders and advocating for
