Community Roller Rink Nights

Put on some comfy socks and head out to the Old Spanish Trail Outdoor Pavilion for Moab's first Pop Up Roller Rink Night on Friday, March 23rd!

This all ages, family-friendly social event will be hosted on final Fridays each month and is FREE for Grand County Residents. For visitors to Moab, it's just $5 for a skate rental. A fleet of rental roller skates and roller blades are available in various sizes, ranging from toddler to youth 3, all the way up to mens' 12. Individuals are welcome to bring their own skates.

The open-air rink will feature spectacular views of the red rocks and La Sal Mountains. After sunset, enjoy gliding under the mood lighting of the giant disco ball. Lively music will be playing all evening. The rink itself will feature a slower lane and a fast lane, with center space and outlying areas designated for dancing and practice. Skate mate walkers will be provided, as well as skating instruction. Bench and grass seating available for hanging out. Bring a snack, a picnic, or grab a bite from the food vendor of the night!

Don't miss the 1st Community Skate Night of the 2018 Season! Friday, March 23rd, from 6-9 pm at the Old Spanish Trail Pavilion. FREE for locals. Future skate nights will be held on the last Friday of the month.

Monthly Community Roller Rink Nights are hosted by SKATE MOAB, a volunteer run skate co-op that encourages happy & healthy community through the joy of skating.
