Museum of Moab 1
118 E. Center St.• 435.259.7985

Around 2009 a group of us took lessons from master pastelist JC Borders. The class evolved into an informal weekly gathering where we painted together, shared techniques, offered mutual support, and critiqued each other's work. We are the Moab Pastel Guild.

MARC (Arts & Rec Center) 2
111 E. 100 N. St. • 435.259.6272

Enjoy an epic display of oil paintings from local artist Elizabeth Quagliaroli.
"...Whatever portrayed, I am in love. At my final brush strokes, I struggle to say goodbye. Saddened to end this love affair, I sign and date it, and I stop."

Moonflower Co-Op 3
39 E. 100 N. St.• 435.259.5712

Karen Chatham likes to draw attention to the amazing forms, color combinations, surfaces, and designs found in nature and preserve in some way the visual and emotional experience of naturally occurring beauty. As found in nature each piece of her art has a very unique and individual look.

CommuniTea Garden 4
165 E. 100 S. • 435.260.8931

Come see Dre Carman's installations at Resiliency Hub's garden! Carman is a local upcycle artist who makes meaningful creations from found materials. This location is new to the ArtWalk, and shows permaculture design in action.

Multicultural Center 5
156 N. 100 W. • 435.259.5444

Visit the Multicultural Mural! Free audio tours and learning activities. Learn about important social justice leaders painted by local artists! Receive your stamp and get more info about Moab Valley Multicultural Center at the CommuniTea Garden.

Gallery Moab 6
87 N. Main St.• 435.355.0024

Greg MacDonald is Guest Artist during April.
His new mixed media work combines watercolor, line drawing, textures, and photographic context for the creatures emerging from his creative subconscious.
Join members in a reception for Greg during ArtWalk.
