Quilting In The Red Rocks Quilt Show

A pop of color is always welcome during Moab's winter months. Viewers can find a rainbow of colorful quilts at the Delicate Stitchers' 12th biennial Quilting in the Red Rocks Quilt Show! The location is the Grand Center, 182 N. 500 West, and the show will be held the weekend of March 2nd and 3rd. The hours are Saturday, March 2, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., and Sunday, March 3, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Admission, as always, is FREE!

year. This provides a nudge for members to finish projects that have been set aside for one reason or another. Monthly "Saturday sew days" are scheduled so members can work on their own projects or participate in a scheduled class. An annual themed quilt challenge will be held during the months of July and August at the Moab Museum.

Antique, traditional and art quilts, previous challenge quilts, quilted home décor and wearable art will be on display.

Also on display will be a beautiful queen-sized blue and white Opportunity Quilt made by Guild members and expertly quilted by Lou Gostlin. Tickets for the quilt will be on sale at the show. Tickets for gift baskets, prepared by Guild members, will also be offered.

Vendors from Utah and Colorado will offer fabrics, patterns, threads, books and notions, so stop by their booths to see what they have to offer.

The Delicate Stitchers Quilt Guild was founded in 1998 by a group of women who recognized the need for an organized group that would foster the fiber art form of quilting. Monthly meetings are held the second Tuesday of each month at 6:30 p.m. at the Grand Center, 182 N 500 West, in Moab. A social "half hour" is held, starting at 6:00 p.m. This gives members a chance to catch up with each other and also provides an opportunity for members to peruse the Guild's extensive library of quilting books. There is a lesson given at each meeting and members bring their projects, completed or in progress, for "Show and Tell". A popular UFO (unfinished objects) challenge takes place each

This year's theme is "Seasons", offering members the opportunity to share their interpretations of the theme. The Guild participates in many charitable projects, and this year we are making small Bargello American flags to give to Moab area Veterans. Last year's project was to make placemats for Meals on Wheels recipients. We hope to make their meals a little brighter! Eighty-five placemats were created. Membership dues are $15 per year. All quilters, and those interested in quilting, are welcome! For more information, check out the Guild's blog: www.moabquilts.blogspot.com. Or, contact Guild President, Mary Wakeley at 815-712-6169. Be sure to mention that you read about the quilt show in Moab Happenings!
