

Moab Celtic Festival

Please Join Us and See What the NOISE is All About!

Please join us for our 9th year of Celebrating the heritage and culture of Scotland, Ireland and Wales, just as it's been done for centuries...with lots of great music, dancing, athletics and good fun, good food, good drink and great friends. Enjoy musical performances all day long, massed bagpipe bands, unique Celtic merchants and eateries, Scottish clans, heritage and cultural booths, highland athletics and much more.

The Moab Celtic Festival will kick off the festivities Friday, October 14 at 7 pm with The Tattoo held poolside at The Element, 1431 N Hwy 191, where you will be get a sample the awesome entertainment you will experience throughout the weekend.

The Moab City Ball Fields gates will open at 8 am on Saturday, October 15 to continue the Celebration of the Celtic Heritage with Bagpipe and Drum bands, Highland Dancing, Heavy Athletics, Family History Clan Booths, Wares, Food, Beer & Pub, Bonnie Knees Contest, Door Prizes and Silent Auction.

At 11 am, please be ready for The Parade that will start near the Moab Information Center and proceed east on Center Street to the Ball Fields, followed by the Opening Ceremony. The Pipes & Drum bands will join together on the field followed by the Clan March. Please stay and enjoy the traditional Scottish activities such as heavy athletics, featuring the Utah Stone Put Championship, Highland Dancing at Star Hall, Bagpipe band and solo competitions, family history clan booths, beer & pub, whisky tasting, food and wares vendors, door prizes, silent auction and much more! We are honored, once again, to be hosting the North American Lightweight Women's Championship Heavy Athletics! Come watch these women throw!

Saturday, October 15th at 7 pm, you will find us at the Spitfire Smokehouse Bar & Taps at 2 S 100 W for The Ceilidh for a little "friendly competition" between pipers and drummers followed by music by our amazing entertainers.

The fun will continue on Sunday, October 16 when the gates open at 8 am at the Moab City Ball Fields. Please join us on the Delicate Arch stage at 11 am for the Kirkin of the Tartan (a non-denominational religious service). At 2 pm we will hold the Closing Ceremony when the winners will be announced and the awards will be presented. Please stay and enjoy the Festival until it closes at 4 pm.

Please join the "Scots on The Rocks" for this fun-filled festival and also see what Moab has to offer!
