January Events

Jan 1 NEW YEAR'S DAY

Jan 30 Arches Ultra- the second event in Moab's Triple Crown race and is Moab's newest trail race, and it travels along the border of Arches National Park, using Bar M, Klono, and Klondike Trail Systems. The trails are smooth and easy at points, technical slick rock at others, and there's even some sand to shake things up. Winter is a great time to be in Moab running, and we've chosen a lower elevation run, that will give you views of the towering Moab cliffs, Arches National Park, and the snow covered La Sals. For info: madmooseevents.com

Jan 18 MARTIN LUTHER KING JR. DAY

February Events

Feb 2 GROUND HOG DAY

Feb 13 Red Hot 33K and 55K- the third event in Moab's Triple Crown race is located northwest of Moab, Utah just west of Arches National Park. Red Hot runners will have majestic views of the La Sal Mountains to the southeast and breathtaking views of Canyonlands National Park to the west. The Red Hot is being recognized as kicking off the ultra running calendar for most trail runners.
