KZMU's Fall Radiothon: October 8th-16th

by Serah Mead

The air is cooling, the rabbit brush is blooming, and we up at KZMU are gearing up for another Radiothon! Fall's membership drive starts October 8th and continues through the 16th. In addition to all your favorite DJs bringing you themed shows and positive energy, we're thrilled to bring several brand new DJs and their musical tastes to your ears. Since the last Radiothon, we've welcomed 9 new

We've all had a trying year; whether it's navigating endless COVID protocols, watching our mountains burn, shoring up our homes in preparation for the next flash flood, or mourning over the murder of Kylan and Crystal, two bright lights in our community - we've all been through it in some way.

And through it all, KZMU has been here to provide up to date disaster

In September, actor and activist George Takei visited the Moab Isolation Center, where Japanese-American men were held in isolation during WWII. Takei was in Moab to narrate 'Lost Freedom: A Memory,' based on his own experiences in confinement as a child. KZMU News produced several interviews and a feature.

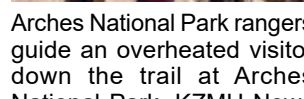

and emergency information, solace and peace through music and creativity, and a deep sense of connection with the community through the diverse voices of your neighbors - our programmers.

You showed up for us in a record-breaking way, raising nearly $40,000 in our Spring Radiothon! That support was massive and directly enabled us to grow our News Department by hiring a part time reporter, Justin Higginbottom, and getting essential broadcast journalism software and hardware. It also enabled us to more equitably compensate our many contributors who
