Moab Recreation and Aquatic Center Pool to Close Temporarily for Repairs

Aquatic memberships will be extended to compensate patrons

The indoor pool at Moab Recreation & Aquatic Center (MRAC) will be closed for approximately three weeks beginning on Feb. 6 while repairs are made to the pool floor that will require draining the pool. The sand in the facility's sand filters will also be replaced and other maintenance tasks will be completed throughout the MRAC during this time.

"The lane and target marker tape on the bottom and shallow end of the pool consisted of apparently defective material used during installation and have since bubbled up and separated, creating a trip hazard. The tape cannot be removed as it is chemically bonded to the membrane covering the pool bottom, so it will be cut out and replaced with tile. In addition, there are some pinholes in the actual pool membrane which need to be repaired," said MRAC Director Terry Lewis. "We anticipate being able to drain, repair and refill the pool inside of three weeks, opening back up at the beginning of March."

The rest of the MRAC facility will remain open while the pool repairs and other work are completed. Fitness center hours and classes will run according to the regular schedule and showers will be available.

To compensate patrons, all aquatic and inclusive memberships that are active as of the time of the pool closure will be extended for a time equal to the length of the closure, Lewis said. In addition, some fitness classes will be offered in lieu of certain water aerobics classes. These classes will be available to regular water aerobics attendees only. Class punch passes, SilverSneakers, Silver & Fit and AARP Medicare Supplement passes will be accepted.

"We recognize that this will have a considerable impact upon our users and hope that the extension of their aquatic memberships and offering of our other services will help to lessen the sting," Lewis said. "We appreciate everyone's forbearance. We all want to keep our community's facility in optimum condition."

Progress reports on the project will be posted on the MRAC Facebook page (facebook.com/MoabRAC) and the City of Moab website (www.moabcity.org). For more information, or for questions regarding the pool closure, contact MRAC staff at 435-259-8226 or via email at tlewis@moabcity.org.

Yes! The Trashion Show is happening.

What: The Moab Trashion Show is a celebration of upcycled fashion. Create your own costume out of repurposed materials and strut your stuff. There will be two DJ's, one marching band, and a runway performance. Best of show will receive great prizes from local businesses. Participants must be 21+. Entry is $10 at the door.

When: Saturday February 23rd 8 pm

Where: Woody's Tavern

Who: Hosted by Resiliency Hub

For more information check out the event page, <https://www.facebook.com/events/713798805626691/> or visit Resiliency Hub's page, <https://www.facebook.com/resiliencyhub/>

Dress in your best upcycled costume for the Trashion Show, Moab's annual dance party and Trashion Fashion runway phenomena!

Define Upcycle: Reuse discarded objects or material in such a way as to create a product of a higher quality or value than the original.

Define Trashion: Trashion (a portmanteau of "trash" and "fashion") is a term for art, jewellery, clothing created from used, thrown-out, found and repurposed elements.

How it works: The community is invited to come to the event adorned in their finest upcycled outfit. There will be music playing so have fun dancing and admiring other people's creative trashion fashion statements.

Throughout the evening, the 3 Trashion Judges will mingle in the crowd selecting their favorite costumes in the categories of "Trashiest", "Classiest" and "Sassiest". A total of 9 people will be chosen to participate in the runway. The runway will begin and the contestants will strut their stuff down the aisle. The judges will select their top 3 winners. Winners will receive prizes for their efforts.

New this year! Bonus points will be given for anyone using items that are recently non-recyclable in Moab, such as #1 clam shell plastic, #2 colored plastic, #3-7 plastics, mixed paper, and newspaper.

After the runway, it's back to dancing! This event is 21+ and costs $10 at the door. Proceeds benefit the Resiliency Hub.

Have fun, be creative, live the low impact lifestyle. Contact resiliencyhub@gmail.com for more information.
